

Become the Chair of Trustees at a vibrant charity

Do you think you could be the Chair of Trustees at a vibrant charity providing an arts centre and forest school for adults with learning disabilities in Cambridge and the surrounding area?

Rowan is an arts centre and forest school for adults with learning disabilities and has been running since 1984. We believe in a world where all people with learning disabilities can participate in the creative arts. We seek to promote wellbeing and eliminate social exclusion, isolation and prejudice.

Using visual and performing arts, Rowan endeavours to provide a safe, creative and enriching environment where adults with learning disabilities, under the direction of artists, craftspeople and volunteers, can grow artistically, as well as in their abilities, confidence and self-esteem – all vital ingredients for independent living, health and wellbeing.
